The Warren Center Hosts 24th Annual Fantasy Football Draft Night

DALLAS (August 29, 2017)-The 24th Annual Fantasy Football Draft Night benefitting The Warren Center took place on Friday, August 25th. Over 400 Participants drafted their own Fantasy Football team and will compete in a league of friends and colleagues throughout the NFL Season.

This year's event featured:

- NBC 5 Today Co-Anchor Marc Fein as Emcee.
- Live Entertainment provided by Jolie Holliday and Sonny Burgess Duo
- National Anthem performed by "Hearts of Maya" founder Maya Delgado
- Silent and Live Auction packages which included trips, sports memorabilia and more.
- Opportunity to meet Former Dallas Cowboys Player, Phil Pozderac
- Heads or Tails sponsored by Whole Foods.
- Cocktail reception with dinner buffet.

The event raised over $200,000 for children with special needs being served by The Warren Center.

"We are so thankful for the incredible generosity we saw here tonight", said Tara Null, Director of Development for The Warren Center. "The money raised will impact hundreds of lives, giving children the chance they deserve to succeed in life and giving parents the tools needed to advocate for their children."

The "Super Bowl Champion" of the fantasy football event will receive two season ticket packages to the 2018-2019 Dallas Cowboys season. Winners of each league will receive an autographed football signed by Former Cowboys Player, Randy White.

For more information, please contact Tara Null at 972-490-9055 or 214-709-8901 or email Tara.Null@TheWarrenCenter.org.
